20th Annual Senior College Symposium, April 9, 2025
All day (9am-4pm) at U of T Faculty Club, 41 Willcocks or by Zoom

Adapting to Climate Change: Ways Forward

The effects of climate change are now evident in Canada and worldwide. Our speakers will describe and discuss ways of adapting to new realities in local and global economies and living conditions, bringing perspectives from research, professional activity, and public policy. Be part of the discussion!
